

Colleyville College

College of Supervision/Management or College of Executive Leadership

The Future is Now! Are you ready? Are you prepared to take the next step? We can help! Be a member of Colleyville College. It's never too late to make plans for your future.

Be a Member of Colleyville College. It's about learning, growing and preparing yourself to meet tomorrow's challenge. This college is unlike any you've known – there are no final exams, no expensive text books to buy and no early morning classes. Well, okay, the last one might be up for revision since some classes might start at the beginning of the normal workday. Colleyville College is about helping you move forward in all directions!

- You'll have the opportunity to participate in supervisory, management or executive leadership development programs
- Outline your career goals and determine your course
- Work within your development plan to improve your skills, grow your experience and take on new challenges

Best of All... You work at your own pace. You set the parameters of the program. You can set high expectations and work hard to achieve your goal in a short amount of time or you can pace yourself. It is all up to you.

The College of Executive Leadership is for candidates interested in executive level management positions. This program includes a selection process and will be accepting eight candidates for the 2008 program.

To enroll, complete the attached application by October 8, 2007, and submit to Human Resources.

Once your enrollment is complete, you will be notified of orientation.
