Wine Spectator magazine has selected Next Wood Fired Bistro & Vino Bar for their mid-level "Best of Award of Excellence" for 2015.

A total of nine restaurants in Dallas-Fort Worth, only four of which are located in Tarrant County, have received this level of recognition for this year. The magazine describes the award as one that "gives special recognition to restaurants with lists that display vintage depth or excellent breadth across several regions".

The City of Colleyville congratulates local restaurateurs Tom & Ying Aikens on this prestigious honor.

Zoë means "life" in Greek and this is embraced in every aspect of Zoës Kitchen. Ingredients are delivered fresh daily and each item is prepared from scratch. Nothing is fried and there are no microwaves. Zoës Kitchen is Mediterranean-inspired, where grilling is the predominate method of cooking along with an abundance of fresh fruits and vegetables, fresh herbs, olive oil and lean proteins.

July Sales Tax Revenue

From the sales tax revenues reported this month, General Fund sales tax is down 6.34% (-$17,172) from revenues reported for the same time period last year. Year-to-date General Fund sales tax is up 4.61% ($96,847). This is the second month that sales tax has declined this fiscal year (May was down 0.36%).
