Colleyville Flying
 High With Aviation
 Headquarters Niche

Colleyville has been cleared for landing. Landing more aviation company relocations, that is.

The close proximity to D/FW International Airport and Fort Worth's Alliance and Meacham airports, combined with Colleyville's brand as a prestigious business address is attracting aviation companies to the city.

"Colleyville has all the benefits of being close to D/FW International Airport with none of the noise."

Marty Wieder,
 Economic Development Director, City of Colleyville

The big news came this Spring with the announcement of Aviation Place to be built in The Village at Colleyville. Construction is underway on the three-story Aviation Place building that will be the new corporate headquarters for Jack Prewitt & Associates, Inc., a worldwide leader in corporate aircraft sales and acquisitions. The company owns the 13,263 square foot building at 97 Village Lane in The Village at and will relocate their offices Freeway in Bedford before the end of this year. Jack Prewitt & Associates will occupy the third floor of the building.

Aviation Place is 100% leased with a roster of all aviation businesses that are relocating to Colleyville. Corporate Aviation Analysis & Planning, Dallas Jet International, Helicopter Exchange Limited and Aircraft Transaction Facilitators will all be based in Aviation Place.

Rendering of the new Aviation Place building and construction on schedule to open in 2013.
